My Vision..... by Bruce M. Firestone

It was a cold Wednesday in September, 1876 when the Ottawa Football Club was formed. Wearing uniforms of red, grey and navy blue, the new team won their first game against Aylmer on September 23rd. Since then there have been many wins and glorious moments which today are part of the legacy that is the Ottawa Rough Riders. On December 5, 1925 Ottawa won its first Grey Cup with a solid victory over Winnipeg 24-1; and repeated this success over Toronto for its second championship the following year. The glory had begun.

As the Canadian Football League progressed, so did the Rough Riders. Grey Cups were celebrated again in 1940, '51 and '60. The Riders of the late '60's were dominant with names like Russ Jackson, Don Sutherin, Vic Washington, Moe Racine, Whit Tucker, Ron Stewart and Frank Clair. This group of heroes played together, for one another, and brought two more Grey Cups in 1968 and '69. As the Riders progressed through the modern era, championships continued to come to Ottawa. In 1973 Jack Gotta led his troops, with the help of the accurate toe of Gerry Organ, to an eighth Grey Cup. 1976 saw the CFL attract two million fans for the first time, and most of them watched the most dramatic play in Grey Cup history. The "Miracle at Toronto", Clements to Gabriel, 23-20, Grey Cup number nine; all synonymous with glory, excitement, dedication, perseverance and conquest. More than any other single play in football, it was this championship catch against which all triumphs are to be measured.

Championships begin with people. The Ottawa Rough Riders have quality management; an ensemble of coaches and players with a multitude of Grey Cup rings between them. Everyone you will see and meet in and around Frank Clair Stadium is committed to ensuring you the highest level of entertainment. Stability of management, ownership, players and coaches has become a reality. Players and coaches will do more good work in and for the community as more players make Ottawa their off-season home. These people have already begun to instill a different feeling in this organization. It is not new, because it is the very feeling which used to envelope Ottawa twenty years ago.

Cheering for any sports team is an emotional investment. It's amazing what you will hear Riders fans promise if only their team kicks that game-winning field goal or drives for the triumphant touchdown. It is one of the unique moments in a person's life when, just for an instant, nothing else matters. This emotional investment places a heavy degree of responsibility on the Ottawa Rough Riders. This football team has gathered the people who will make your emotional investment pay dividends.

The Canadian Football League has a tremendous future ahead of it. Game day presentation is changing and expanding into an entertainment package which will thrill and excite you. Ottawa is one of the founding members of a league which will cater to everyone, showcase great talent and let you be a player in what will become the greatest production of professional football in North America.

Football is no longer just a game, it is an experience. Frank Clair Stadium is not just a facility, it is a stage. The fan now purchases a ticket to an event at a first class venue, with superior concessions, comfortable accommodations, sparkling entertainment, friendly people and memorable action. The talent, experience and drive of everyone under the Rough Riders umbrella is drawn upon every day in order to present to you a football entertainment package full of excitement.

Now is the time to realize that football in North America is evolving. The adventure is as close as your stadium. In a world of pressures and obstacles, the simple thrill of investing yourself in the team that represents your city is a welcome release. Pride in showing your allegiance, the togetherness of a family outing; the friendships nurtured while rooting for the home team, and the sheer ecstasy of winning are the gems to be found at Frank Clair Stadium.

Professional football in the National Capital Region is beginning a resplendent journey to glory...experience the experience!

1993 Season: Danny participated in every game this past season for the B.C. Lions and had the task of taking a 3-15 team and turning them around. Media Guidelines

Regular Season Practices

Interviews may take place any time up until 30 minutes prior to scheduled team meetings and immediately following practice. Interviews may not take place during practice. The locker room will remain open on a regular practice day for one and a half hours up until 30 minutes prior to scheduled team meetings. At this point all members of the media must leave the locker room. The Rough Riders will also provide access to Alumni Hall, second floor of the Rough Riders Clubhouse, for those members of the media whom do not wish to conduct the interview in the locker room. Alumni Hall will be open for the same duration as the locker room. Media members are required to check in daily with Robert Gialloreto, Director of Communications prior to entering the locker room.

Head Coach Adam Rita will be available on a daily basis between 12:00 noon and 12:30 p.m. in his office with the exception of the day before and the day of a game. If an interview is required outside of this half hour time frame please contact Robert Gialloreto so that all parties may be accommodated.

Day Before Game Day

A press conference involving both Adam Rita and the visiting Head Coach will be held on the Second Floor of the Rough Riders Clubhouse the day before the game. Dates and times to be announced.

Post Game

All media members must remain outside of the locker room for a maximum of 15 minutes after the end of the game. After the 15 minute "Cool Down" the locker room will be open to accredited media for a 30 minute time period. During this 30 minute time frame the Club will do its best to ensure that the players do not disrobe. At the end of this time frame the media will be asked to leave the locker room so that the players may continue to shower and dress. If further time is required to complete the interview the media member may request that the said player accompany him/her outside of the locker room in order to complete the interview.

Head Coach Adam Rita will be available for interview immediately following the 15 minute "Cool Down". Location TBD.

Game Day Accreditation

Application for accreditation must be made 48 hour prior to game time. Please contact Robert Gialloredo at (613) 721-2255 or fax: (613) 721-2250.

Great Moments in Rough Riders' History...

In 1993 Ottawa quarterback Tom Burgess completed a career year shattering Rough Riders records while moving up on the prolific passers list. On July 16th against the Hamilton Tiger-Cats Tom completed 30 passes breaking the record of 29 held by both Todd Dillon and J.C. Watts. Tom finished the year with 5,063 yards passing on 329 completions, breaking the single-season Rough Riders passing yardage and completions record previously held by Damon Allen. By seasons end Tom's totals moved him to the 7th position on the CFL's all-time pass completions list with 1,739; 7th on the passing yardage list with 25,264 yards; and 8th on the pass attempts list with 3,316.

Historical Facts

Ottawa Rough Riders History

On September 16, 1867, there was a game played between two teams (not organized clubs) named the Rough Riders and the Senators, the Rough Riders apparently named for the lumberjacks who rode down the rapids of the Ottawa River.

On September 19, 1876, a meeting was held at the Russell Hotel for the purpose of organizing the Ottawa Football Club. Four days later, on September 23rd, the Rough Riders played their first game on Cartier Square against Aylmer. But it was not until a year later on May 12th, 1877, that Ottawa would host its first game against an outside team when the Britannia Football Club visited the Nation's Capital.

On January 4th, 1883, the Ontario Rugby Football Union was formed. The Ottawa Rough Riders entered the Conference and were defeated 9-7 by the Toronto Argonauts in the first championship game.

In 1907, the Rough Riders entered the Club into what was known as the Big 4 which grew out of an amalgamation between the Hamilton Tigers and the Toronto Argonauts of the Ontario Union and the Montreal Football Club of the Quebec Union.

On December 11, 1909, following an invitation from the New York Herald News Paper, the Hamilton Tigers and the Ottawa Rough Riders played an exhibition game of Canadian Football in New York City at Van Courtland Park. The Tigers won 11-6 before 15,000 fans. That same year, Lord Earl Grey, the Governor General of Canada, donated a trophy to be awarded to the champions of the Canadian Rugby Football Union.

The Ottawa Football Club continued to grow with the League throughout the years witnessing changes in the rules: playing squads were reduced from 15 to 14 men in 1902, and from 14 to 12 men in 1905; touchdowns were increased from 4 to 5 points in 1904.

In 1924, the club changed its name from the Rough Riders to the Senators following a merger with the St. Bridgit's Club and ironically won its first Grey Cup in 1925 as the Ottawa Senators. In 1926, Head Coach Dave McMann led Ottawa to its second Grey Cup victory in as many years. Prior to the start of the 1927 campaign, Ottawa returned to its original name - the Rough Riders.

Since their second championship in 1926, the Ottawa Rough Riders went on to win 7 more titles winning a total of 9 Grey Cups - 1925, '26, '40, '51, '60, '68, '69, '73, and '76.

Since the inception of the Football Club, several members of the Ottawa Rough Riders have earned a place in the Canadian Football League's Hall of Fame.
